Your comments on the planning application

I am shocked that Camden is proposing to build a 25 storey building on Brill Place and object strongly to it. I understand the arguments however my reasons for objecting are as follows. 1. The height of this building is grossly out of keeping with its surroundings. 2. If it goes ahead it will set a precedent for the council and developers to build further buildings of that height in the future. 3. We must not build on precious green space. I am not convinced that the replacement green area will make up for the removal of the area of park that this building will occupy. Camden must see that this is a mistake and can surely use its skills and
