Your comments on the planning application

I would also like to voice my concerns over the planned extension of the external seating area and provision of external lighting. I believe that further accommodation for further seating and lighting will exacerbate the persistent problems of ;

1. Litter and smoke pollution: some of the customers have left the remnants of cigarette butts, broken glass in the vicinity of our main door. We already have to contend with crowds of cigarette smoke.

2. Noise: we already have to endure late night noise from their customers, catering for more outdoor comfort for their patrons will only serve to fuel this problem as it is designed to make staying outside more inviting.

3. Light pollution: this will only serve to add light pollution especially against the flats immediately above the affected premises. Possibly disrupting sleep.
