Your comments on the planning application

Dear Sir/Ms,
None of the residents of Stanbury Court was informed of the latest application by the Sir Richard Steele Pub. Since the south side of Stanbury Court is immediately adjacent to the Pub, and my own flat along with those of my neighbours are affected by the Pub's premises and activities, the lack of consultation appears remiss and of concern.
I have just found out about the current hearing and request that the Planning Inspector consider the following:
- Residents of Stanbury Court, 99 Haverstock Hill, we're not aware of the renewed application to alter the Pub's premises and function

- The planning design, if allowed to proceed, would have severe and detrimental impact on flats on the adjacent side of the building, especially since noise levels, noxious odours, etc rise upwards within a closed space. This has not even been considered in the application.
