Description:

Section B: Self Build Declaration

- I declare that this a "self build project" for purposes of the exemption set out within the regulations
 - I declare that I will occupy the premises as my sole or main residence for a period of 3 years from completion of the property
 - I declare that I will provide the required supporting documentation as set out in 'Self Build Exemption Claim Form Part 2' within 6 months of completion of the property and I understand failure to do this will result in CIL becoming payable
 - I declare the amount of de minimis State aid received in the last three years prior to submission of this application for relief is less than 200,000 Euro
- 'Self Build' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as all homes built or commissioned by individuals or groups of individuals for their own use, either by building the home on their own or working with builders.*

'Completion' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as the issuing of a compliance certificate for this development issued under either regulation 17 (completion certificates) of the Building Regulations 2010 or section 51 of the Building Act 1984 (final certificates).

Declaration

I confirm that the details given are correct.

I understand:

That my claim for exemption will lapse where a commencement notice is not submitted prior to commencement of the chargeable development to which this exemption applies.

The meaning of a 'disqualifying event' for CIL self build exemption and that where a disqualifying event occurs before or after commencement of development I must inform the collecting authority within 14 days.

That my claim for self build exemption will lapse where development commences prior to the collecting authority informing me of its decision.
