2016/1737/P	Tom Symes	79 Lawn Road London NW3 2XB nw32xb nw32xb nw32xb	14/07/2016 21:46:55	COMMNT	The revised drawings are quite unclear as to how the existing driveway will be affected. Clearly substantial works appear to be intended to create a sunken garage area. The inclusion of a pedestrian walkway - no details shown - sounds completely out of character with the surrounding properties. In addition to the concerns to the shared driveway access that exists for all the paired houses on this side of Lawn Road, it will inevitably change the overall design and feel of the existing very sympathetic environment in this conservation area. In particular the construction of a large retaining wall visible from the street is completely out of character.
