Dear Laura Hazelton, Camden gov. uk '

Please forgive the delay. I am in my 90th year and slow to check emails. But this case is very important to my wellbeing that of my neighbours . Putting it simply :That magnificent tree is one of the lungs of this small area in which I live and it deserves to be helped to thrive until its natAruAL END. It should be treATED and cherished.
yours respectfully, Dr Roslyn Poignant

In a message dated 13/07/2016 14:50:41 GMT Daylight Time, Laurn Poignant Dear Sir/Madam,

Following your previous interest in this application, I am writing to inform you that revised plans have been received along with an Arboricultural impact assessment.

If you have any further comments you wish to be considered before the determination of this application, I would be grateful if you could provide these by Friday 22nd July.

Kind regards,

Laura Hazelton
