Your comments on the planning application

I strongly object to the proposed application on the basis that it will seriously detract from the character of the Seven Dials conservation area. The Seven Dials conservation area policy states that internally illuminated box signs are unacceptable and also that the signage will usually consist of one fascia sign and one projecting sign. The internal illumination of the proposed signage violates this policy. The plans also demonstrate over-signage in terms of both scale and number of signs. The two projecting signs in particular are significantly larger than those of the existing scheme. The existing scheme itself did nothing to enhance the conservation area and any replacement should be viewed as an opportunity for improvement, not further deterioration. I am also concerned that (1) the new signage has already been installed without prior Council approval and (2) the Council's planning website indicates the application as registered on 9 August but calls for comments by 8 August thus potentially discouraging others who may wish to object.
