Your comments on the planning application

I have two concerns:

1. Any demolition work does not affect the structure of number 2 Guilford Street where the first floor and above passes over Brownlow Mews and is structurally dependent on the steel pylon attached to number 1..
2. The proposed terrace is only a few feet from the rear bedroom of the first floor flat and very near to that on the second floor. If the application for this part of the development is agreed it would be helpful to have a restriction on access to the terrace during the night (10pm-7am) and cooking of food on the terrace should not be
