- 42 Seek legal and independent advice if the tenant is unsure about the contents of this tenancy agreement.

The landlord agrees with the tenant as follows: -

- (a) That the tenant paying the rent and performing the agreements on the part of the tenant may quietly possess and enjoy the property during the tenancy without any unlawful interruption from the landlord or any person claiming under or in trust for the landlord.
- (b) To return to the tenant any rent payable and in fact paid in advance for any period while the property is rendered uninhabitable or inaccessible by reason of fire or other risks insured against (unless the result of the act or default of the tenant) the amount in case of dispute to be settled by arbitration.
- (c) To keep maintain and repair the structure of the property provided that this agreement shall not be construed as requiring the landlord to carry out works for which the tenant is liable by virtue of his duty to use the property in a tenant-like manner and provided further that the tenant shall indemnify the landlord in respect of the cost of repairs to the structure resulting from misuse of the same howsoever and by whatsoever caused.
- (d) That as the owner of the freehold or leasehold interest in the property he has obtained or procured all consents necessary to empower him to enter into this agreement from any superior landlord mortgagee or any other party.
- (e) To pay and indemnify the tenant against all assessments and outgoings in respect of the property including the water rates, council tax but excluding gas bills, electricity bills and telephone bills.
- (f) The landlord hereby gives the tenant notice that possession of the premises might be recovered on ground 1(b) of part 1 of schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 namely if the landlord seeking possession or in the case of joint landlords seeking possession at least one of them should require the premises as his or his spouse's only or principal home in circumstances in which neither that landlord (or in the case of joint landlords any one of them) nor any other person who as landlord derived title under the landlord has acquired reversion on the tenancy for money or money's worth.
- (g) The landlord hereby gives the tenant notice that possession of the premises might be recovered on ground 2 of part 1 of schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 namely if (as the premises are subject to a mortgage granted before the tenancy) the mortgagee should become entitled to exercise a power of sale and should require possession of the premises for the purpose of disposing of it with vacant possession in exercise of that power.
- (h) The landlord hereby gives the tenant notice that possession of the premises might be recovered on ground 1 (a) of part 1 of schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 namely that at some time before the beginning of this tenancy the landlord seeking possession or in the case of joint landlords seeking possession at least one of them occupied the premises as his only or principal home.
- (i) That the agent, shall be entitled to a commission of 2% (plus VAT) minimum of £2500 plus VAT, if at anytime after the commencement of the tenancy, unconditional contracts for the sale of the property are exchanged with the tenant or any associated party. This commission is payable upon completion and includes fixtures and fittings.
- (j) That the agent, shall be entitled to a commission (plus VAT), if both parties (i.e. the landlord and the tenant(s)) agree to extend or renew the tenancy.
- (k) If the landlord does not have repairs carried out within a reasonable time the tenant can write to the landlord and put him on notice that the repair must be done by a set date. If the landlord fails to repair by that date, the tenant can have the repair carried out and deduct the cost from the rent.
- (l) The landlord shall permit the tenant "quiet enjoyment" which means that the landlord will comply with his repairing obligations in such a manner and within a suitable time-scale so that there is as little interference with the tenancy as possible.
- (m) The landlord is not required to comply with his repairing obligations unless he has been made aware of the need of the repair. This puts the responsibility on the tenant to make the landlord or agent aware of any repairs.
- (n) That adequate buildings and contents insurance is maintained during the tenancy.
- (o) The landlord agrees that the tenant may terminate the tenancy if the property is uninhabitable.
- (p) The landlord agrees to repair and keep in working order all appliances provided by the landlord unless damaged due to tenants negligence.
