Having considered the proposals with reference to information held in the Greater London Historic Environment Record and/or made available in connection with this application, I conclude that the proposed changes are unlikely to have an additional effect on heritage assets of archaeological interest.

The archaeological implications of the redevelopment proposals have already been addressed and the changes do not introduce new issues.

No further assessment or conditions are therefore necessary.

Please note that this response relates solely to archaeological considerations. If necessary my Historic Buildings and Areas colleagues should be consulted separately regarding statutory matters.

Yours sincerely

Sandy Kidd
