Dear Sirs,

I have just received email notification about this planning application to erect a letting board in Arkwright Road.
It states the application is registered 05-09-2016 and comments until 19-08-2016 which is clearly nonsense.
I wish to object (because we have previously been plagued by these boards which are surely illegal?) but there is no place that I can find on the Application page to do this.
Please could you advise?

Yours

Ken Howard

Hi planning team:

I am emailing to object to an advertising board proposed for Arkwright Road.

The board is unnecessary to sell properties in the current high demand housing market and is effectively an unwelcome estate agent board in an area that has done well to avoid these eyesores.

Kind regards,
