Your comments on the planning application

Steele's Mews North consists of 7 former coachhouses with living accommodation above. The original buildings were just two storeys, but over the years nos 1-6 have been converted by way of loft conversions to provide desirable three-storey accommodation. The only property in the mews not to have received this treatment before now is no. 7 and we, as neighbours, think it would be unreasonable to deny the opportunity to the owners to catch up with the rest of us. The houses are still somewhat cottage-like in nature and the additional space will no doubt be of considerable benefit to the current occupants but won't open up opportunities for
