Just to let you know that the shisha tent at the back of this cafe for which there is no planning permission (yet, an application has now been submitted pending outcome) is still operating way into the night. They have taken down the big banner for it but there is a small notice in their window saying it is still operating as usual. Is this legal that they can continue to operate without permission? I would be grateful if you could investigate.

IF POSSIBLE PLEASE PROVIDE A PHOTO
