Your comments on the planning application

I write on behalf of The Cavendish School, a primary school for children aged 3-11. Our Head and all teachers are highly concerned that the proposed storage and screen described in the application will have negative effects on the adjacent playground that is used by 230 children on multiple occasions each day. The roof terrace is already used as a smoking area by staff of the restaurant at the detriment to air quality for our pupils - having the screen will enable them to continue smoking without being seen and being asked to desist. Moreover, the screen itself is highly visually intrusive, forming a solid barrier along an edge of our
