Recommend No Archaeological Requirement

Thank you for your consultation dated 07 November 2016.

The Greater London Archaeological Advisory Service (GLAAS) provides archaeological advice to boroughs in accordance with the National Planning Policy Framework and GLAAS Charter.

Having considered the proposals with reference to information held in the Greater London Historic Environment Record and/or made available in connection with this application, I conclude that the proposal is unlikely to have a significant effect on heritage assets of archaeological interest.

Although within an archaeological priority area, these new proposals are considered too small scale to result in a significant archaeological impact at this location. It must however be noted that a programme of archaeological investigation is still required for the previously consented scheme to which this new application relates to.

No further assessment or conditions are therefore necessary.

Please note that this response relates solely to archaeological considerations. If necessary my Historic Buildings and Areas colleagues should be consulted separately regarding statutory matters.
