Your comments on the planning application

Hello,

I am writing to object to these planned works as they negatively impact our lives and well beings significantly. We are three people who have just moved in to this location and by the time we were notified about these change of use plans, the decision had already been made, before the consultation period ended I might add which is extremely unfair. From the sounds of it, construction has already begun and the noise is unbearable, waking everybody up early most days and as we predominantly work from home it is an unwelcome distraction throughout the rest of the day. I have searched through the available documents online and found no specific dates for these works, I would like to know how long it will take, as if it's for very much longer greater action on our part would have to be taken. Please take these thoughts into consideration before proceeding.

Best,
FF
