Your comments on the planning application

I object to this application regarding the roof extension which is too high. The roof extensions on nos. 54 and 56 which this proposal matches, were built higher than their planning consent allowed, but the London Borough of Camden failed to order them to be lowered (perhaps because no. 54 was then owned by the LBC Director of Finance) and so they have been allowed to stand - Obtrusive, ugly, disproportionate, ostentatious and quite out of character in this Conservation Area. Other roof extensions on nos. 62, 64, 66, 41 and 43 are built lower, the mansard sloping back and hardly visible from street level. This proposal should do
