There doesn't seem to be enough planning involved regarding the impact on the transportation and education, or NHS infrastructure in the area. Adding a large amount of residential space without considering the impact on the community seems really unwise.

I believe we do need new development, but an affordable one.

Right now we work full-time so don't qualify for council property.

These type of properties being build are so luxurious common full-time working people cant afford to buy or even rent.

So a Big No to lavish non affordable lifestyle

Whilst I am not opposed to building new houses I am opposed to building which is granted without proper impact assessments carried out on the area; opposed to building on council land where there will be no new houses for the most needy, no council houses. This is purely building for profit without consider ation of what is needed.

- Too many properties in west end lane / west Hampstead - impact on transport + amenities.
- no longer "village feel" of W.H.
- no extra LPS + housing
- difficult / dangerous currently re crossing at W.H. Lane / Iverson Road - re volume of people from 3 busy transport interchange.
- Too large.

There have been too many building built in this area (ex. just opposite the tube station). We don't need extra flats this will put too much pressure on infrastructure, transport. Also would need to build schools + sport facilities instead.

The exit onto West End Lane will Cause congestion + chaos
The neighbourhood has no need for another Supermarket
The buildings will block sunlight to the children's play area.
