

Ordnance Survey Plan
Published 1953 - 1954
Source map scale - 1:1,250

The historical maps shown were reproduced from maps predominantly held at the scale adopted for England, Wales and Scotland in the 1840's. In 1854 the 1:2,500 scale was adopted for mapping urban areas and by 1896 it covered the whole of what were considered to be the cultivated parts of Great Britain. The Ordnance Survey maps are based on the OS datum which is the Cassini Projection, with independent surveys of a single county or group of counties, giving rise to significant inaccuracies in outlying areas.

The SIM cards (Ordnance Survey's Survey of Information on Microfilm) are further, minor editions of mapping which were produced and published in between the main editions of mapping as an area was updated. They date from 1947 to 1994, and contain detailed information on buildings, roads and land-use. These maps were produced at both 1:2,500 and 1:1,250 scales.

Supply of Unpublished Survey Information

Source map scale - 1:1,250

SUSI maps (Supply of Unpublished Survey Information) were produced between 1972 and 1977, mainly for internal use at Ordnance Survey. These were more of a work-in-progress plan as they showed updates of individual areas on a map. These maps were unpublished and do not represent a specific moment in time. They were produced at both 1:2,500 and 1:1,250 scales.

Large-Scale National Grid Data

Source map scale - 1:1,250

Large Scale National Grid Data superseded SIM cards (Ordnance Survey's Survey of Information on Microfilm) in 1992, and continued to be produced until 1995. These maps were the forerunners of digital mapping and so provide detailed information on houses and roads, but tend to show less topographic features such as vegetation. These maps were produced at both 1:2,500 and 1:1,250 scales.
