2017/0509/T	Armorer Wason	7 West Hill Court	11/02/2017 12:03:14	SUPPRT	I'm extremely sad about the decline of what was once a stunningly beautiful tree, but feel that we are now just postponing the inevitable by trying to keep it. Personally I would like our West Hill Court community to accept this very sad loss, and to look forward, reclaim the area now fenced off, and plan new trees to plant. I walk around its base most days, and am concerned about the possibility of it falling, which previous surveys did not consider a risk. I also worry that if it does fall, it could possibly damage or even fell the veteran oak nearby on city of London land, which would be terrible. It will be devastating to say goodbye to it, but I feel that we have come to the point when we now need to.
