2016/7062/P	Dragos	Queen's Gate 191	13/02/2017 18:45:31	OBJ	We all know that living in Central London it's not that cheap, and a hostel is the very best option for people with a limited budget. We can include here people that are looking for job interviews, people who are visiting London temporarily to study that can't afford to rent a flat, and the best place to stay is a hostel. Also it will be a loss of jobs for young people, particularly for the much required first job experience.
2016/7062/P	Taneal	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:01:57	OBJ	Being an Australian teacher trying to figure out my place in London, Astor Museum set me up with the foundations to start a great life here. I still go back to visit regularly as it makes me feel like I have a piece of home in London. Its cheap, its convenient, its a special find here and to see it go will be extremely saddening.
2016/7062/P	Dimitri	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:28:33	OBJ	Astor Museum is an amazing, affordable place to stay for those visiting friends in London. Cheap accomodation in central London is difficult to find, however, this hostel rectifies this issue, and provides even more for those who stay. Guests have the chance to meet open, friendly travellers such as themselves and make lifelong friends and memories. It is a valuable opportunity that all the money in the world cannot buy. In such an expensive city like London, this is a rarity.
2016/7062/P	Maddie	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:27:13	OBJ	Astor Museum Inn can be held responsible for my love for London. Having stayed as guest, to returning as staff this hostel has given me personally so much. Being my first place I moved out of home too I have developed so many skills both working and socially. I'm meeting like-minded people from all over the world and learning so much more than any normal work place or living arrangement could offer. It would be a disappointment to see such a great opportunity for young people closed for just another set of apartments.
2016/7062/P	Pepe Alvarez	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:20:29	OBJ	For those who require a short stay in London before and after job interviews, Astor Museum provides affordable accomodation. It is a lovely, homely hostel, allowing those who stay there to feel as though they are part of a loving community of expats. Deriving people of such a wonderful, novel experience in London would be such a loss.
2016/7062/P	Pepe Alvarez	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:08:13	OBJ	Many people come from Europe seeking out better opportunities in terms of career choices and/or quality of life. Trying to make a life in a new country where everything is so foreign is an incredibly difficult and challenging step for everyone. However, Astor Museum provides not only affordable accomodation, but a welcoming, friendly, warm vibe, making that transition slightly less stressful and lonely for many. Closing down a place that is home to expats in such a big, lonely, busy city would be a terrible loss for central London.
2016/7062/P	Liam	45 Queensborough Terrace Astor Hostels	13/02/2017 13:06:32	OBJ	You can't let a place as good as Astor Museum be lost to another typical apartment building! With it being already hard enough to come by a safe, comfortable and most importantly affordable place in London, the loss of an establishment like this will be a loss to the community.
2016/7062/P	Miku	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:03:44	OBJ	In an expensive city like London, it would be difficult for students or those travelling on a tight budget to find affordable accomodation. Astor Museum not only offers affordable accomodation, but provides a safe, comfortable environment for travellers to make friends and create wonderful memories.

2016/7062/P	Laura	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:33:25	OBJ	Young people who are interested in working in the hospitality industry are provided to do just that at Astor Museum. It is a warm, friendly working environment that also becomes home to many of those who venture to London on their own. In a world where the acceptance of those who are so different from us culturally is highly valuable, Astor Museum provides an excellent starting point in expanding on one's cultural awareness and sensitivity.
2016/7062/P	Laura Krebs	Queensborough Terrace 45	13/02/2017 13:19:32	OBJ	For those who stay in London temporarily for studies or internships, Astor Museum is perfect as it is in central London and is incredibly affordable for those on a tight budget. It provides a plethora of amazing, basic facilities needed for a short stay, and an incredibly warm atmosphere that allows people to feel instantly at home. Such a useful source of accommodation such as this is difficult to come by in such a busy, lonely city like London.
2016/7062/P	Jesslyn	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:18:38	OBJ	The closure of Astor Museum would mean that many young people would lose an amazing once-in-a-lifetime experience. This hostel has allowed and continues to provide the opportunity to both work and live in a place in which young people are enriched and challenged everyday by living and interacting with people from all over the world and from many walks of life. In a world where we are moving backwards in terms of globalisation and acceptance for others who are different from ourselves, Astor Museum is a place of interculturalism and openness to others.
2016/7062/P	Nikita	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:16:44	OBJ	From Brazil to London, what a scary thought to be in this big, cold, grey city alone. Astor Museum Inn welcomes new comers to London with open arms and gives you a sense of belonging when you are so far away from your family, friends and home. How many places in London can a young 19 year old girl feel safe and secure, surrounded by friends and support without paying an arm and a leg? It would be such a sad shame to lose this beautiful gem in a beautiful city.
2016/7062/P	Matt	45 Queensborough Terrace Astor Hostels W23SY W23SY	13/02/2017 12:55:58	OBJ	Losing Astor Museum Inn will be a significant loss for London. I've never felt more at home being overseas as I do at an Astor Hostel. Comfortable places are hard to come by, especially in central London.
2016/7062/P	James	45 Queensborough Terrace	13/02/2017 13:11:56	OBJ	I have just started working for a sister Astor hostel. These hostels are more than just some beds to backpackers, they are homes, they provide jobs to young people attempting to live abroad, they create a family for people in a foreign part of the world, they are so much more than just a building. Experiencing what they have to offer would change anybodies mind who was even considering not having these establishments around for young people. A loss of Astor Museum Inn would mean so much more than just the loss of a building.

2016/7062/P	Amber	8 Homeridge Terrace Port Macquarie NSW Australia.	13/02/2017 09:08:40	OBJ	Coming from Australia myself and many friends have utilised and loved the convenience of Astor Museum Inn. As a hostel it creates comfortable and affordable accommodation within central London that now days seems incredibly difficult to come by. Not only do they provide a beginning and ending point for many travellers coming from both from in and out of Australia, they establish a base for many expats wishing to create a life in London. You only need to experience London as backpacker to realise the importance of keeping places like Astor Museum Inn around.
2016/7062/P	Ramona	Queen's Gate 191	13/02/2017 17:47:13	OBJ	Hostel accomodation is one of the best options(if not the best one) for young travelers or any age. It is the best way to develop a social life when you are around strangers, to meet people when you are traveling alone etc. I always choose a hostel when i am traveling and I will keep doing that, being the most affordable option, especially in London, such an expensive city. I also have the oportunity to work in a hostel, with accomodation provided, in central London, at affordable price, wich is almost impossible for young people who are just starting their carreir. It is essencial that we keep having these type of places in London, without it my move to London wouldn't have been possible, or for my colleagues. Please take in consideration our beliefs and wishes!
2016/7062/P	Declan	45 Queensborough Terrace W23SY London	13/02/2017 09:22:57	OBJ	Astor Museum Inn is a fantastic youth environment. It's rare to find young, down to earth and like minded people so easily accessible in central London. To see this go would be such a loss to London and its young expats and travellers.
2016/7062/P	Rebekka Barootes	191 Queens Gate SW7 5EU SW7 5EU	13/02/2017 20:02:59	OBJ	I have heard of the planned zoning changes that if passed will change the accessibility and affordability of staying in Central London, particularly and specifically in regards to Astor Museum Hostel. Central London does not have many affordable places to stay as a traveller or as a recent arrival, such as myself from Canada with a youth mobility visa, and getting rid of such a prime located hostel would be horrible. Not only is it hard to find affordable accommodation within Central London but SAFE and comfortable places as well. Astor is safe, comfortable and centrally located. Everything tourists, travellers and "new arrivals" require. I think it would be a grave mistake to close Astor Museum for more private residences. You would be doing a disservice to the whole community, yes hostels have new and ever-changing guests, but some of those people bring more to the city. Artists, musicians, students, historians, etc. are some of the people who stay at hostels. The variety and vibrancy of the people that hostels with great ratings and amenities bring is astounding. By closing Astor Museum you would be closing not just a hostel but a place were people meet, share life experiences and information and inspire each other to get out there and do more for the world as a whole. I hope you please take into consideration all of what people have objected about. Have a wonderful day.

2016/7062/P	Clark	Sw7 5eu	14/02/2017 02:54:05	OBJ	To whom it may concern. I am writing with concern regarding the residential development plan on 27 montage St, london. i think it is very important we protect hostels in central London as they create business and provide a place for travellers to stay. As well as travellers, a hostel provides affordable accommodation to those visiting London for short stays which would otherwise be unavailable. For this reason, I want to make a request that these plans aren't followed through with and that astor museum is able to continue to run business
2016/7062/P	Nishat Rahman	3 Baytree Court Burnham s11 8bh s11 8bh	13/02/2017 21:47:01	OBJ	Students need affordable accommodation in the area and removing a hostel that provides this sort of accommodation to many students and young people on a budget is unacceptable.
