Denby Lodge is a listed building with sensitive setting. Building an office in a small space like the courtyard is not right. Residents' privacy will not be respected. Different people will be leaving during the construction of the building. Denby Lodge <sup>residents</sup> will lose their access to good sunlight that goes to their windows. I personally work on night duty at stage during the day. Even now I dread to think that I can't be able to get a proper sleep during the day and this <sup>surely</sup> affects my well being. I'm sure if ever the office <sup>is</sup> built, there will soon be encountered by residents. There will be lots of complain to Camden Council. And also the Tenant's handbook will ~~also~~ longer be effective with regards to rules & regulations.
