Description:

34 John Street was built as part of a speculation of 35 houses built between 1754 and 1759 on the estate of Henry Doughty by John Blagrove [Blagrave] the builder. They followed the Palladian proportions but as per the fashion of the day had minimal façade decorations. While many buildings in the area fell into disrepair or suffered damage during the war and have since been demolished or severely altered those that survive in part, or even in some cases whole, are nos.2-5,7-9,29,30,33-36. No34 has been extensively rebuilt on its upper floors, as has its neighbours no. 36 (some time between 1942 and 1950, after severe war damage) and no. 35. No. 33 appears to be largely original. Several of the houses other than 34 are noted in the list description as having original stairs and balusters, with some panelled rooms also remaining.
