I refer to the above details, An appeal has been made to the Secretary of State against the London Borough of Camden: in its decision to refuse permission .

This appeal will be determined on the basis of written representations. The procedure to be followed is set out in Part 1 of the Town and Country Planning (Appeals) (Written Representations Procedure) (England) Regulations 2009.

As this appeal is proceeding under the Householder Appeals Service, there is no opportunity for you to submit comments. However, we have forwarded all the representations made to us on the application to the Planning Inspectorate and the appellant. These will be considered by the Inspector when determining the appeal.

If you wish to withdraw any representations you made on the application, you must make this request to the Planning Inspectorate within 4 weeks of the appeal's starting date. You can do this online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk>. If you do not have access to the internet, you can write (quoting the appeal reference) to:
