| 2017/4219/P | Karen Deco | 5 Inkerman Road NW5 3BS | 23/08/2017 21:31:35 | NOBJ | I have looked at these plans and am happy with them. They are in keeping with the style of the house and very similar to other roof extensions in the area. It is set back and discreet in appearance. |
| 2017/4219/P | John O'Mara & Beatrice Blakemore | 4 Inkerman Road London NW5 3BS | 22/08/2017 16:18:05 | SUPPRT | As neighbours and homeowners on Inkerman Road, we would like to express our support for this planning application for a roof extension to number 1 Inkerman Road. |
| 2017/4219/P | Cheryl Lambrou | 12 Inkerman Road London NW5 3BT | 22/08/2017 16:46:31 | OBJ | Dear Sirs, I am opposing this application as I feel that no thought has been put into the design, Inkerman Road forms part of a residential and conservation area and there are no front dormers along the entire street so why is the owner of the property being entertained and allowed to submit these plans, or is it because he is a celebrity, we are well aware that the officer in charge of this particular case has allowed another celebrity in the next street to create a roof terrace which effects the privacy of the occupants of Inkerman Road. Looking at the plans submitted the property already has a large footprint as the lower end of Inkerman Road have basements, so I cannot understand why the owner needs to increase the size of his property and with windows to the rear of the roof extension as well as the front. If this proposed extension is permitted this will then set a precedent for all of the houses along Inkerman Road to do the same which would effect the conservation area directly. I have lived and worked in Kentish Town all of my life and I like that the Victorian buildings look like just that to install this extension with the dormers at the front would look like an ugly duckling amongst swans. If this extension is permitted I will go back to the fact that the case officer is allowing celebrities and well known persons to do as they wish and she will pass them through planning I will also make the local media aware that if you are a celebrity living in the borough of camden whether a conservation area or not that you can do what you wish. The design is not in any way in keeping with the conservation area. |
