Dear Mrs Henry.....we whole heartedly agree and support our two neighbours' letters to you earlier this week. I am astonished and depressed at the arrogance of Mr Angel at Albany Homes, still trying to demolish this ancient brick wall that divides the curtilage of The Old Court House and the area of Jack Straws Castle. One doesn't have to be a rocket scientist to work out what his motives are.....initially the planners gave Albany the permission to convert The Old Court House into three separate homes ,all of which our three families bought from him and have lived ever since. The original plans also included the landscaping of the rear area to create an attractive garden for the three homes to enjoy.....alas, for some peculiar reason Mr Angel annexed this area at the same time we all bought our homes. We must try to stop him with this new application

Your sincerely, as ever, Richard and Hazel Collins.
