Dear ms Beaumont.

I am writing to appeal against the decision to demolish the temple .

Rochester square temple is the oldest spiritual temple, which was dedicated by sir Arthur Conan Doyle. ( it is a historic building)

Spiritualism is a recognised religion which was passed by parliament many years ago.

The members of the temple were not informed of closure. rather, was done covertly as the SNU knew we would not except what they were doing.

We would like you to look at this decision again.

As I stated this is a founder building of spirituality, a few years away from being 100 years old. People's remains are buried within the land also.

The temple is of cultural and historic importance too.

Kind regards

Jackie noone.
