Please contact your local Citizens Advice Bureau, other advice agency, or us on 020 7974 5950, for further information about general entitlement and how to claim.

If you have a friend or relative you think might be entitled to help, please ask them to get in touch.

You can ask us to reconsider it or you can appeal to the Tribunals Service, an organisation independent of the Council. You can ask us to send you a Dispute Statement or you can write a letter saying why you disagree with the decision and whether you want us to reconsider it or refer your appeal to the Tribunals Service. Please write to the Review Team.

The time limit to challenge a dispute is one month from the date of this letter. The time limit may be extended only in special circumstances. If you make an appeal, it must be in writing and you must sign it.

If you have asked for a written explanation, we will ignore any time it has taken us to provide this.

You cannot appeal to the Tribunals Service against some of our decisions; including rate of benefit, a refusal to award a discretionary payment or a decision to suspend your payment. If you are not sure what to do or want more information, please contact us. Or you may want to contact one of the advice agencies listed above.

Change in your circumstances

The amount of benefit shown in this letter has been worked out using the information that you have given. You should read this letter very carefully to make sure it is correct. If you think there is anything wrong, you must tell me immediately in writing.

If any of this information changes, including information about the people living with you, this may change the amount of benefit you get. You must tell me immediately in writing about these changes. A phone call or asking someone else to tell me about the change is not enough.

If there is an overpayment of benefit you may have to pay some money back. If you deliberately fail to tell me about changes which result in too much benefit being paid, you are committing an offence and you may be prosecuted.

If you have any changes to any of the items listed below you should tell me about them immediately:

- You, your partner or any other adults in your household stop receiving income support or jobseeker's allowance
- Changes to your tenancy or rent (but not if you are a council tenant)
- Changes to the income of anyone living with you except your partner
- Changes to dependant children
- Any changes in the number of people living with you
- You or anyone living with you becomes a student or stops being a student
- Changes to the amount of child tax credit or child benefit
- Your capital or savings exceed £16,000 in total
- You move to different accommodation. This includes a change of room within the same property.
- You are likely to be away from your home for 13 weeks or more.

Important: Any changes to your income or savings except those listed above will need to be notified to the Job Centre Plus office at the following address:

Euston

You must tell me about any changes immediately. If the change means that you would get more benefit, and you do not tell me within one month, I will not be able to backdate the change.

Yours sincerely

Janet Pulford / Teresa Woodford - Benefits Manager

EFFICIENCY INFORMATION

Councils are required to have regard to economy, efficiency and effectiveness in their actions. An efficiency saving occurs when the cost of an activity falls, but its effectiveness is not reduced. By the end of March 2009, efficiency savings achieved since April 2008 are forecast to be:

	Saving	as a % of 2007-2008 spend
London Borough of Camden	£23,798,000	7.4%
London Fire & Emergency Planning Authority	£4,724,000	1.1%

These efficiencies equal £260 for the average Band D dwelling

Dear MISS PLLANA

Change To Your Benefit

Notification of Housing and Council Tax Benefit

I have changed your benefit from 15/10/2012 because of changes to your Tax Credit amount and this affects your benefit entitlement. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:

Housing benefit

£319.31 per week from 15/10/2012 to
21/10/2012
£320.96 per week from 22/10/2012

Council tax benefit

£19.11 per week from 15/10/2012 to
21/10/2012
£19.61 per week from 22/10/2012

How you will be paid

Housing benefit will be paid by fortnightly in arrears into your bank account. Your benefit payment of £640.27 for 15/10/2012 to 28/10/2012 will be paid on 28/10/2012. £641.92 will then be paid every fortnight.

Council tax benefit of £46.77 has been paid to your council tax account. The total amount of council tax benefit for 2012/13 is £1,178.89.

You will soon receive a new bill that will tell you how much council tax you will now have to pay.

Details of the information you have given me and how your benefit has been worked out are shown on the following pages. Details are also given of what you should do if you disagree with my decision.

You should read this letter very carefully. It is especially important that you check through the pages marked "please read this page carefully". If you think there is anything wrong, you must tell me immediately in writing.

Further information

If you would like more information, or a more detailed explanation of how this decision was made, please telephone 020 7974 5950 or write to the address at the top of this letter.

- Changes in the number of people living with you.
- If any of your children leave school or college.
- If someone in your household starts work.
- If the rent you pay to your landlord changes.

- If you move to different accommodation.

Please note: You must tell me about any changes immediately. If the change means that you would get more benefit, and you do not tell me within one month, I will not be able to backdate the change.

Some of these changes may increase the amount of help you are entitled to, for example, if you start to receive attendance allowance, carers allowance or disability living allowance.

Living in a council property

If you are living in council property the granting of housing benefit does not affect your status as occupier, e.g., it does not imply the grant of any tenancy nor acceptance by the Council of lawful occupation.

Private Claims Team
Benefits Service

How your weekly benefit is worked out

To work out your 'total weekly benefit' I also have to compare 'your total weekly income' to 'your applicable amount'. Your 'total weekly income' is the amount used for benefit purposes after adjustments and disregards (see the following tables). Your 'applicable amount' is made up of allowances and premiums set by the Government, which relates to your personal circumstances and cannot be changed by the Council.

Your total weekly income of £355.65 is higher than your applicable amount of £323.82. The difference between these two amounts is called 'excess income'. Your 'excess income' is £31.83.

The Government's housing benefit rules say that you must pay 65 percent of this 'excess income' towards your rent. 65 percent of £31.83 is £20.68.

Your maximum housing benefit of £340.00, less £20.68, means I can pay you benefit of £319.31 each week.

The Government's council tax benefit rules say that you must pay 20 percent of this 'excess income' towards your council tax. 20 percent of £31.83 is £6.36.

Your maximum council tax benefit of £25.47, less £6.36, means I can pay you benefit of £19.11 each week.

This table below shows your benefit for rent and council tax. Using the letters A to E on the left as a guide, please see the following page for more information on how I have worked this out.

Rent from 15/10/2012 to 21/10/2012		Rent		Council Tax
Council tax from 15/10/2012 to 21/10/2012

Dear MR REKA,

COUNCIL TAX - PAYMENT ARRANGEMENT: FLAT 2A, 110 KENTISH TOWN ROAD, LONDON, , , NW1 9PX

I am pleased to confirm that we can now offer you a discretionary payment plan, to pay your Council Tax by instalments, having agreed to the following arrangement.

If you have received a summons, it will not stop an application being made for a liability order on the date shown. If a liability order is granted, additional costs of £15.00 will be added, making the total cost amount £95.00. These have already been included in this arrangement.

You must make payments as detailed below or this arrangement will be cancelled and further recovery action taken. This could result in your account being passed to our Enforcement Agent for collection and you incurring additional statutory fees that you will have to pay them.

This will only happen if a liability order has been obtained and we have sent you a Liability Order Notification letter. It will detail the action the Council is entitled to take and will be sent, even if you have made a payment arrangement, following receipt of a summons. You do not need to take any further action if this is the case.

This arrangement covers the amount of £840.97 due in respect of the current financial year and is payable by Direct Debit.
