

The Lodge_North End Avenue

Photographic Survey

prepared by Hayatsu Architects, July 2017

2.5 Photographic Survey

The following pages document the current state of the fire station when visited in April 2017 unless otherwise stated.

The Lodge, North End Avenue. Forecourt accessed from private drive off North End Road.

View from approach from north on North End Avenue

View of The Lodge from Northstead forecourt, far east and south facade gables and roof just visible over boundary wall and fencing.

West facade seen from North End Road (May 2017)

Partial view back to house from lane which merges into North End Avenue, Heath Extension (May 2017)

North facade (May 2017)

Access along west facade (May 2017)

South facade looking out over garden

View South into large garden backing onto Sandy Heath, Hampstead Heath Extension

Decorative terracotta tiles line upper storey and wrap around facades

Terracotta tiles lining upper storey external walls

Garage interior, off of internal courtyard

Current kitchen with entrance off of internal courtyard

Ground floor room facing South with steps leading up into the garden

West corner of house, ground floor

First floor room with potbelly stove overlooking garden to the South

Interior of west wing with lowered ceiling and fixed wardrobes.