2017/5858/P	Alex Sanchez	75 Rathcoole Gardens, London N8	08/11/2017 14:17:24	NOBJ	I like the creative plans as well as the architect's comments submitted for this extension. The existing design is extremely wasteful of internal space and the internal modifications address that problem creating more useful living, and a more rational use of, space. The proposed extension, likewise, makes a rational use of the huge roof terrace without affecting anyone to either side negatively or at all and still leaves sufficient outside space for the new extended flat. Love it! London needs MORE LIVING SPACE! THEREFORE I FULLY SUPPORT THIS APPLICATION.
