

Sir,

I appreciate that the deadline for comments has passed, but we are now experiencing the effect of floodlights on the Menelik Road properties that back onto the school as the building works continue into the early evening. While the lights used are not focused on a pitch, they are directed downwards and from pylons significantly lower than ten metres. They are clearly intrusive with invading light.

Esmond Hitchcock
18 Menelik Road