 - Appeal Decision
 - Case Officer / Tel Patrick Marfleet 1222

The decision should have been issued the week commencing 18th September 2017 and as the agents, we have repeatedly contacted and chased the allocated planning officer, Patrick Marfleet, but without results.

In the supporting documents, you will find the email correspondence between ourselves and him, asking for a decision, to which he replied that he will issue as soon as possible. That was dated the 18th of October.

This delay is unacceptable and the client should have a clear decision so as to determine the way forward. She is expecting a new member to the family and needs to be able to plan the next few months.

Sincerely,

Olympia Anesti
