

We have now had a building surveyor visit the property who has explained that the tree has caused the wall to fall over (please see attached) and that it must be removed prior to a new wall being built.

Kind regards
Mark

