

Parker House - Planning Condition 3

---

January 2018

Metal Railing

A simple metal railing mediates between the traditional and contemporary elements of the scheme. Derived from the traditional metal railing that had been present on the Aldwych Workshops, and throughout the local area, a process of design development in collaboration with the metal fabricator has arrived at optimal proportions for both the aesthetic and safety criteria.

