6. FORFEITURE

If the Rent is at least 21 days overdue (whether formally demanded or not) or if there has been a substantial breach of any of the Tenant's obligations in this Agreement the Landlord may forfeit the tenancy (i.e. bring it to an end) and recover possession of the Property. The other rights and remedies of the Landlord will remain in force.

(Note: This clause does not affect any rights of the Tenant under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977. The Landlord cannot enter the Property or evict a Tenant without a court having first made an order for possession).

The Landlord can only remove the Tenant from the Property by giving the Tenant notice in writing of his intention to seek a possession order (even after the Term of this Agreement has expired) and by obtaining a court order. The court will only order the Tenant to leave the Property before the expiry of the Term if one of the following reasons is proved (being grounds set out in Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988):

Ground 8: that both at the date of service of notice of the landlord's intention to commence proceedings for possession and at the time of the court hearing there is (a) at least eight weeks' rent unpaid where rent is payable weekly or fortnightly, (b) at least two months' rent unpaid if rent is payable monthly, (c) at least one quarter's rent more than three months in arrears if rent is payable quarterly or (d) at least three months' rent more than three months in arrears if rent is payable yearly.

Ground 10: that there is some rent outstanding both at the date of service of notice of the landlord's intention to commence proceedings and on the date on which proceedings are begun.

Ground 11: that the tenant has persistently delayed paying rent.

Ground 12: that any obligation of the tenancy has been broken or not performed.

Ground 13: that the condition of the property or the common parts has deteriorated because of the behaviour of the tenant or any other person living there.

Ground 14: that the tenant or someone living at or visiting the property (a) has been guilty of conduct which is or is likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance to neighbours or (b) has been convicted of using the property or allowing it to be used for immoral or illegal purposes or has committed an arrestable offence in, or in the locality of, the property.

Ground 15: that the condition of any furniture has deteriorated because it has been ill-treated by the tenant or someone living at the property.

Ground 17: that the landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by either the tenant or a person acting at the tenant's instigation.

7. THE LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS

The Landlord agrees with the Tenant:

- 7.1 That the Tenant may quietly possess and enjoy the Property during the tenancy without any interruption from the Landlord or any person claiming under or in trust for the Landlord.
- 7.2 To return to the Tenant any Rent payable for any period during which the Property has been made uninhabitable provided that the Property has not been made uninhabitable by the wilful destruction or negligence of the Tenant.
- 7.3 To repair the structure and exterior of the Property including drains gutters and external pipes.
- 7.4 To repair and maintain in working order the apparatus in the Property for the supply of water gas and electricity and all sanitary apparatus and the central heating and hot water systems.
- 7.5 To comply with the Landlord's obligations in The Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarm (England) Regulations 2015 relating to the provision and testing of smoke and carbon monoxide alarms.
- 7.6 That the Tenant is not required to repair damage to the Property where the Landlord can claim the cost of repairs under any insurance policy maintained by the Landlord provided that this exception will not apply if the Landlord cannot obtain the insurance proceeds because of the Tenant's acts or default or those of the Tenant's family or visitors.

8. TERMINATION

- 8.1 The Landlord may give not less than one months prior written notice at any time to end this Agreement provided that such notice must expire on the last day of a rental period and must not expire sooner than six months from the start of the tenancy.
- 8.2 The Tenant may give not less than Two months prior written notice at any time to end this Agreement provided that such notice must expire on the last day of a rental period and must not expire sooner than 12 months from the start of the tenancy.
