New plan/drawing numbers:

P210 P4

The change is a result of site conditions - the boundary wall has a sloping section with was not evident before construction. In addition, the size of the screen is adapted as a result of the practical and pragmatic advice associated with the stability of the screen in the condition of wind and the ease of its maintenance, given the restricted access. A small skylight was added in order to afford more daylight to the internal staircase.
