My enquiry is	Hi  I have tried several times to complete the online comment option next to a planning application. The service does not appear to be working.  Planning Application: 2018/0927/P  The building has one communal access stairwell and one lift. Assuming these are the entry points of entry for materials and tradesman i imagine building activities to be a major disruption for all those working within the building. For these reasons i object.
