4. Granted planning permission for the development subject to conditions to which you object.
5. Refused approval of the matters reserved under an outline planning permission.
6. Granted approval of the matters reserved under an outline planning permission subject to conditions to which you object.
7. Refused to approve any matter required by a condition on a previous planning permission (other than those specified above).
8. Failed to give notice of its decision within the appropriate period (usually 8 weeks) on an application for permission or approval.
9. Failed to give notice of its decision within the appropriate period because of a dispute over provision of local list documentation.

G. CHOICE OF PROCEDURE

There are three different procedures that the appeal could follow. Please select one.

1. Written Representations

2. Hearing

You must give detailed reasons below or in a separate document why you think a hearing is necessary.

The reasons are set out in the box below

The appellant is of the view that a hearing is the correct procedure to determine the appeal. It is believed that the Inspector is likely to need to test the evidence/clarify matters by questioning, given the Local Planning Authorities apparent in principle objection to the development proposed (which benefits from planning permission pursuant to the GPDO), contrary to the GPDO and NPPF. It is believed that policy has been incorrectly interpreted and that considerations which should be deemed ultra vires have been applied. This apparent in principle objection has led to blanket refusals for a number of GPDO applications submitted by the appellant throughout Camden. In each case, the reasons for refusal have been identical which suggests that each site has not been assessed according to its own merits. The appellant is submitting 10 appeals for different sites in Camden but with similar permitted development refusals pursuant to the installation of telephone kiosks. Given that the fundamental material considerations for each proposal are similar, it is believed that a hearing would present an opportunity to set a precedent for comparable appeals in the borough in the future by conjoining the appeals in to a single Hearing. It is anticipated that both parties would be able to present their own cases without the need for representation from an advocate. There has been a recent increase in the numbers of prior approval applications for telephone kiosks from a number of operators which has led to widespread discussion in the press as to the perceived benefits/detrimental impacts. The appellant is of the opinion that a hearing would demonstrate that the public interest is being noted, the hearing providing an opportunity for the Inspector to test the evidence to the full.

3. Inquiry
