Dear Ms Safarai,

I am enclosing the Titles for my property again. As you will see the Land Registry has stated the address as Bren Cottage, Vale Of Health, NW3 1AS. You can further confirm this with the Royal Mail. In a separate email that I am forwarding, you will see confirmation of the address by Camden Council street naming team.

If you send post to NW3 1AU I will not receive it and also I will not be putting the correct address on the appeal form.

I look forward to your response.

Yours Sincerely,

Jita Lukka

Dear Ms Lukka,

The land registry specifies that the correct address for the above site is NW3 1AU which is why this is the postcode on the on the Notice and letters.

I have put further copy of the Notice in the post to you.

Kind regards

Dear Ms Safari,

Thank you for your email.

The Enforcement Notice still has an incorrect address. Please can you send me the correct one.

As requested I enclose title register for my property.

Yours sincerely

Jita Lukka

Dear Ms Lukka,

Further to our conversation earlier today, please find a copy of the Enforcement Notice for the above site attached. I am also sending another copy by first class post to you at South Fairground site, Bren Cottage, Vale of Health, NW3 1AS. Please could you email me a copy of your register of Title for the above land.

Kind regards

Dear Ms Safari,

I write following my emails and calls to John Sheehy in attempting to ascertain when and to whom the enforcement notice was served. Your telephone call just now confirmed that the legal department has served the Notice on 20th December to the wrong site, people and address. You confirmed the Notice has never been sent to me.

I have given you my correct address which is the one the Planning office holds. That being South Fairground Site (Bren Cottage), Vale Of Health, NW3 1AS. I await receipt of the Notice by email and post.

I am advised that the Enforcement Notice is not valid until it is properly served. This notwithstanding I intend to appeal it within the next few days irrespective.

Kind regards,

Jita Lukka
