

Supplementary details of experience of Roger Gulhane CEng MICE, of basement design and construction.

1964 Site engineer for Higgs and Hill on two of the Camden's tower blocks - Taplow and Burnham on the Chalcott estate on Fellow Rd, specifically the deep basement car park in Taplow.

1969 Design engineer and site supervision for conversion of Harrod's deep multi storey warehouse in Kensington into modern multi-storey underground car park in which propping and 'top down' construction was necessary.

1974 Design engineer and site supervision for Arup's Highgate New Town estate in Dartmouth Park where the boiler house extended 12 m under the adjacent cemetery.

1974 – 2007 Involvement in several other excavation and basement extension projects in own practice with one in Lyndhurst Road NW3 being very similar to the proposals at St George's Terrace.

In recent years in own practice design engineer for five front garden light wells where the retaining loads for the public highway were a significant aspect.