

Existing Window Section

Proposed Window Section

To the Camden High Street elevation: cill lowered to the original level. Existing cill to be retained or replicated. Window jamb members to be retained, and additional pieces, milled to an exact match, inserted with scarf joint running down toward the exterior face. Species for inserts and new cill if required - american light oak, with FSC accreditation, or accoya. Window to be repainted to match existing.

