Although I now have a washing machine, I still find it invaluable for large items like blankets and curtains, etc., and it is foolish to assume that everyone in Belsize has their own washing and drying facility. The launderette is one of the few remaining useful facilities on Belsize Terrace; we have lost the Post Office/stationers, hardware shop, shoe repairers, off-licence and pub. The area is rapidly losing diversity - we have more eateries than we know what to do with. The launderette is a vital community asset.
