2018/3669/A	Sarah Monk	16/08/2018 17:17:07	OBJ	As a resident of Willes Road since 1999 I object to these large, illuminated signs on the basis that this is still a much valued residential area. I welcome new homes, and even the scores of students who will be making their term-time home in Holmes Road (our usual path to the High Street) but I see no need for brash advertising. There is no walk-past trade and my understanding is that those living there will know where they are going. It reduces the area to a transitory community, which it most certainly is not. I have no idea what purpose it might serve on Regis Road but my main objection is for illuminated signage of an advertising nature on Holmes Road. Please don't allow it.
