Dear Sir/Madam

We are fundamentally opposed to the demolition/relocation of a listed heritage asset and, also, we do not see how this could in any way benefit in protecting our conservation area. The demolition/relocation of a listed national asset is fundamentally against the public interest and it is incumbent on Camden Council to protect the public's rights, especially when such wilful demolition is merely for developers' financial benefit.

Your faithfully,

Mr. G. Majed
Mrs C. Gale
