

From: jane johnson [REDACTED]
Sent: 30 September 2018 16:41
To: McClue, Jonathan [REDACTED]
Cc: 100avenueroadCMP [REDACTED]
Subject: 2018/4239/P 100 Avenue Rd

Dear Sirs,

I see that revised plans by the developers mean that they are again wanting to reduce fire exits from the building - this in the face of the recent Grenfell horror is totally irresponsible and cannot be allowed.

They also propose to reduce the bin areas for the affordable units - chiefly to make access for their demolition lorries easier: this is another instance of the developers wholly callous attitude to poorer potential residents, and is disgusting.

Yours

Jane Johnson

[REDACTED]

Please ensure that all comments on this development are posted on your website and available to view in order to ensure transparency over the whole sorry business.

JJ