thing with regard to The above planning tion. I wish to object to it as follows:

ve the creation of an ERUV enables ox Jews to flout the Sabbath rules ves rise to activity otherwise unauthorized Jewish Sabbath. I say this as a Jew myself ction of ERUV poles in Cannon Place conflicts e ethos of Christchurch which affords o church bell sounds. The poles do not e well in these circumstances ction of the ERUV poles invites abuse and e anti-semitic actions from those not nnetic to the Jewish faith. Residents e terrorist targets

RUV poles are offensive, and do not fit the wonderful architecture that makes Cannon Place.

by object to the ERUV poles. I don't think ox Jews should be encouraged to break Sabbath customs in this way.
Yours sincerely
