Dear Mr Bell

I should like to endorse my wife's concerns:

1. that while the applicants state that the yew tree has no amenity value to the street, it has amenity value to many of the houses in Grove Terrace
2. that, in contrast, we are told that our large Ash tree and two Holm Oaks, which abut onto Grove Terrace Mews, have great amenity value to the conservation area and to Boscastle Road as they help to screen houses from view. More than once have we been refused permission to fell the Ash tree and the Council has on several occasions in the last 48 years been parsimonious in how much we may lop the branches of the 3 trees

I strongly object to the proposed felling.

Yours sincerely

Dr Peter Bourdillon
