As the overall height of	the means of enclosure exceeds the allowance under p	ermitted development, planning permission	is requi	red.
Our main issue will be enclosing communal ar	visual appearance of the gates/railings and the existing or eas. It also sits opposite to the square itself which has b	character of this part of the estate – it is cur buildings of heritage significance on the oth	rently fai	irly open with low walls within a conservation area.
We also have a general policy objection to creating gated communities; however, I can see an argument that this would complete a scheme granted in 2004, which may make it acceptable to us.
