

Dear Charlotte,

We write to register our support for this application, on the following grounds:

- We live in number [REDACTED], in a similar style of property. We conducted extensive renovations on our house a few years ago, whilst maintaining the external frame. Rebuilding the house from scratch would have been far preferable from a quality, environmental, and cost perspective, and we wish we had applied accordingly. These houses were badly built, with shoddy materials and workmanship, and we believe that a new build in the same style should be welcomed (and applauded).

- The Katz's have been a valuable part of our community for over a decade, and we very much hope they are able to accommodate their growing family without having to leave the area.

Your sincerely,
