Proposal Erection of part single, part two storey rear extension.

Objection Yes

Comment Yes

Observations Object as although the architects cite examples from all over the UK for justification this is an out of sympathy rear extension, modern in appearance, with large areas of glass.

The upper rear extension Victorian sash window, with original coloured glass, should be retained and not replaced with a modern aluminium one adjoining the proposed ground floor window. Also, why cannot the tiled rear extension roof be replaced with Welsh slate, as originally used, and not a modern membrane type?.
